

Leeds University Union

Code of Good Conduct for: Men's Tennis

- When wearing tennis attire, members must be reminded that they are representing both the University and the tennis club as a whole.
- The club will embrace our inclusive ethos and therefore not discriminate against anyone's race, sexuality, physical ability or social background.
- On becoming a member of Leeds University Tennis Club, the committee must ensure that members have paid the relevant membership fees.
- Members must not incite or cause violent behaviour both on and off the court.
- Members must not incite or cause damage to property both on and off court.
- Members must be welcoming and hospitable towards visiting teams and treat all opponents with respect.
- The wellbeing of members and non-members must be considered at all times when representing the club.
- To claim expenses back for travel, overnight stay, new balls or any other expenditure, please contact a member of your committee who will arrange this for you before booking/paying.
